SHOP OWNER FILES FOR BANKRUPTCY

By ANDERS LARSSON

anders@indlenews.co.uk

AN Axminster business had a bittersweet week by competing in a national final as well as filing for bankruptcy.

Fashion store Marmalade again made it to the final of UK-wide shop window dressing competition skillVM at the In-Store Show, Olympia, London.

Marmalade owner Lisa Fifer teamed up with her sister Shelley and travelled to London for the two-day final on June 29th and 30th.

They finished outside the top-three, but reaching the final for a second time is a massive achievement in its own right.

Unfortunately, the shop has now ceased trading.

Lisa Fifer circulated a brief e-mail on Monday, July 5th, headed Marmalade invoices, saying: "I have filed for bankruptcy."

The e-mail also informed that a hearing is set for July 19th, which has been confirmed by Yeovil County Court.

Marmalade relocated from premises in Chard Street to West Street early this year.

Customers were invited to a reopening party on Saturday, January 23rd at which Axminster mayor Ron Jones cut a ribbon to officially declare the shop re-opened in the new premises.

There was no reply on the Marmalade phone number on Monday morning and the shop was shut.

In a statement issued by skillVM organisers, Lisa Fifer said: "To be one of the best five teams of visual merchandisers feels amazing, especially as Marmalade has made it two years in a row."

"The skillVM experience has been a lot more relaxed and enjoyable this time around."

Her sister Shelley added: "Performing in front of such a big live audience has been surprisingly normal and I felt very calm and quite oblivious to all the people. In the future I hope to still be taking part in creative processes that I love and find so much fun."

Head Judge Alan Westcott said: "Lisa and Shelley created a very quirky, futuristic window, showing rebellion against technology and bringing the product back to life."

Church welcomes back missing font

By ANDERS LARSSON
anderson@findlenews.co.uk

IT is hoped that the people of Chardstock will pack the village church to officially welcome back a font which was absent for more than 140 years.

The return of the font is documented in a DVD called Four Men and a Font, which will be screened for the first time during a homecoming party on Sunday, July 11th.

Efforts to bring the font back started when a local historian and former churchwarden, aided by a retired priest, traced the font to Herefordshire.

The 835 year-old font was moved away from Chardstock in 1864 when the church was rebuilt.

It was taken to St Denis Chapel, Harewood End, just south of Hereford, where it spent many years.

For some reason, it subsequently languished in a farmer's field until the 1960s when it was put to good use in St Francis of Assisi Church on the outskirts of Hereford, which has now been closed due to structural problems.

Local historian and former St Andrew's churchwarden Peter Wood, has been on the trail of the font for some time and finally tracked it down with the help of Reverend Richard Birt, a retired priest living in Hereford.

Peter alerted Chardstock Parochial Church Council of his discovery and it was decided to try to bring the font back to St. Andrew's.

The mission was completed when a group of volunteers from Chardstock travelled to Hereford to bring the font home earlier this year.

The journey to Hereford is told in the Four Men and a Font DVD, made by Mike Jakobsen for Chardstock Historical Society.

The return of the font is to be celebrated at a special event at St. Andrew's Church, Chardstock, starting at 5pm on Sunday, July 11th — during which the DVD will be shown for the first time.

Admission is free, but there will be a collection in aid of the church roof repair fund.

Reverend Judith Roberts is looking forward to the event and said: "Baptism is a profound celebration of faith in Christ and of membership of the church. So the return of the old font, in which hundreds of infants and adults must have been baptised in St Andrew's, is a very special event."

"We hope that many people with a connection with Chardstock will be able to join us and celebrate together."

Extra hours treat for rail passengers

By ANDERS LARSSON
anderson@tindlenews.co.uk

SOUTH West Trains (SWT) may have listened to passengers and decided to extend opening hours at its Axminster ticket office.

But mystery surrounds the issue and the SWT press office was unable to shed any light on things on Monday morning.

Only days after the company told Pulman's View there were no plans to have the ticket office open on Sundays, the ticket office was, indeed, trading on Sunday, July 4th.

Last week, SWT issued a statement to Pulman's View, saying: "We have conducted a full review of our ticket office opening hours and have proposals in place to change the opening hours at a number of our station ticket offices. "These proposals, which we are currently in liaison with the Department for Transport over, do not include any changes to the opening hours of the ticket offices at Axminster, Honiton or Feniton.

"The ticket office at Axminster will continue to be manned Monday to Friday from 6.15am to 5pm, and on Saturdays from 7.15am to 1.05pm and we currently have no plans in place to extend or change these hours."

The opening hours were dramatically slashed as part of a network-wide initiative last year.

But there were hopes, and indication, that opening hours could be extended as a result of the new rail loop at Axminster, which was opened in December last year.

Pulman's View sought clarification from SWT on Monday morning but the situation had not been clarified at the time of going to press.

Standing room

By BEN MIDDLETON
ben@tindlenews.co.uk

IT was standing room only for latecomers at a meeting to discuss the proposed development of 50 houses in Eastfield, West Hill, last Monday evening.

Dozens of residents spoke out against the proposal although some were in favour of the Blue Cedar Homes Ltd development.

One of the first people to speak was Eileen Perkins, planning coordinator for the West Hill Residents' Association.

She said: "At a public meeting in February this development was opposed."

"Although it must be said that a considerable number of West Hill residents have expressed a desire to downsize but there are currently no properties available for this."

"And, there are people who want to live in West Hill because it is close to where they work but at the minute they can't afford to live here."

Ruth Scott-Freer, of Eastfield, said: "This proposal will turn a lovely rural green field into an overcrowded development the likes of which we have not seen in West Hill. The volume of traffic that would come with this proposed development would create a dangerous situation. The whole area would become hazardous for drivers and pedestrians alike."

"The immense stress of this proposal is already affecting the health and wellbeing of some residents in Eastfield. I strongly object."

David Evans, of Eastfield, urged

◆ THE proposed site for 50 homes at Eastfield in West Hill councillors to listen to the comments made by West Hill residents.

He said: "Please consider what the people of West Hill think. Don't assume you know what we want and listen to what we don't want."

Donna Cooper, of Eastfield, was concerned about the environmental impact of the development.

She said: "According to the Devon Biodiversity Records Centre the site at Eastfield is home to the common newt, adder and roe deer. The proposed development would destroy seven acres of precious habitat."

Robert Neil, moved to West Hill in 1969 and urged residents to re-read the village decision statement.

He added: "I would like to see a decision that will not destroy what we have worked so hard to achieve."

Brett Gregson, of Eastfield, said he was concerned about flooding issues and likened the offer of a new building

THE George Hotel building in Axminster has been sold.

A Punch Taverns spokesperson issued a brief statement on Monday morning, saying: "I can confirm that the George Hotel was sold as freehold on June 30th."

No further details were available at the time of Pulman's View going to press.

Have your Cat/Dogs Boosters Lapsed?

We are running a Vaccination Amnesty during July 2010 & 10% off Kennel Cough Vaccination

Regular vaccination of your pet is very important. Canine infectious diseases are ever present, causing severe illness or sometimes death. Parvovirus causes hemorrhagic diarrhoea and can lead to death – cases have been reported in this area.

Leptospirosis is spread to dogs by contact with rats or streams – a real risk in town or country.

Dogs are also vaccinated against distemper, hepatitis and para-influenza.

Cats are at risk from feline leukaemia virus if they go outside and have contact with other cats or other cats' environment. Cat flu and enteritis are caught from contact with other cats causing debilitating illness.

During July we are offering a vaccine amnesty. Your pet can re-start the course by having two injections for the price of a booster. Thereafter, annual vaccination is sufficient to keep your pet safe.

Kennel cough is an infectious disease caused by contact with other dogs, not just in kennels as the name would suggest. A few drops of vaccine into one nostril will protect your dog for a whole year.

During July we are offering 10% off the price of this vaccine.

If your pets vaccines are out of date, please call to arrange an appointment.

National VETERINARY Nurse week

18th-24th July is National Veterinary Nurse week. As a training practice, all of our Nurses are all enrolled with the British Veterinary Nursing Association and are studying for, or have completed and passed an intense training programme over three years, to ensure we are able to offer you the best service possible. Our qualified nurses (registered with the Royal College of Veterinary Surgeons), then run clinics alongside the vets which include, weight management, claw clipping, post operative checks, new puppy/kitten advice, and much more. To book an appointment with the nurse, please call 01404 42750

If you have any queries regarding your pet – Large or Small – please do not hesitate to contact us and speak to one of our qualified Nurses or Veterinary Surgeons. Consultation is by appointment only with a 24 HOUR EMERGENCY COVER. Call 01823 681067 (Hemyock Branch) or 01404 42750 (Honiton branch) 62 New Street, Honiton, Devon. EX14 1BZ

for the primary school, that is included in the development, to a bribe. He said: "I have two main concerns. It only takes three hours of rain and then I have standing water in my garden."

"I have serious concerns. The developers have offered an outright bribe in an attempt to completely go against the already set boundaries in the village."

Claire Wright, Ottery town councillor for the West Hill ward, declared an interest in the matter and spoke before the council went into debate.

She said: "I have a huge number of concerns. My parents live in Eastfield. The access to the site is completely inappropriate and Eastfield residents are worried that the road could turn into a car park at school drop-off times."

"I don't think it is for developers to decide where the village boundary lies."

Councillors speak up over development

IT took almost two hours to debate the proposed Blue Cedar Homes plan for land north of Eastfield, West Hill.

After listening to residents of West Hill and Ottery St Mary, councillors voted in favour of recommending refusal for the application.

The first councillor to speak was Will Laitinen, West Hill councillor for Ottery Town Council, who said: "I live in West Hill and I do think there is a huge issue with access here."

Joe Talbot, also a town councillor for the West Hill ward, said: "I also live in West Hill and I love it here. I don't want it to get any bigger and I don't want it to become an urban sprawl. This development is outside the urban development boundary, if we break this boundary we will become a suburb of Exeter.

"This is beyond a joke and I think it is a crazy application and should be rejected."

Glyn Dobson, the mayor of Ottery St Mary, was worried about the size of the development and said: "This proposal is planned outside the building line."

"There is already a flooding problem and a problem with sewerage. Because of the sheer size of the development that is wanted I think it should be turned down."

Roger Giles, Ottery town councillor and Devon county councillor for West Hill, said: "This plan is so poor that it is difficult to know where to start."

"I am concerned about the traffic impact and flooding issues. This is a very bad application and I hope it is refused."

Paul Lewis, Ottery town councillor, said on balance he was against the proposal but he urged the town council to consider the issue of affordable housing.

He added: "We should be able to provide affordable housing for our children and grand children and we have got to do something about it at some point."

George Hansford, councillor for the north ward, says he was born in West Hill and that the village should not stand still.

He said: "I am not in favour of the application for 50 houses. I think the access is suitable and we shouldn't be depriving anyone else who wants to live here, nothing can stay still."

Possible protection for flood-hit village

AN east Devon village could soon have a flood protection scheme in place thanks to a potential grant from the Environment Agency.

Feniton was one of the worst hit communities when the floods struck east Devon in the winter of 2008.

Following a huge clean-up operation throughout the district, East Devon District Council (EDDC) hosted a Flood Recovery Group in Feniton that looked at the causes of the flooding and investigated possible initiatives designed to reduce the impact of future freak weather events.

Now figures released by the Environment Agency show that £40,000 is scheduled for spending on flood prevention in the village this year, with a further £160,000 earmarked for 2011/12 and just over £1million in 2012/13.

However, the funding is not 100 per cent secure and relies on various conditions, including the approval of planning permission for the flood prevention project.

Graham Brown, EDDC

councillor for Feniton, welcomed the news of the potential funding.

He said: "I'm delighted that this important flood protection work appears in the Environment Agency's funding allocations for the next three years, after lobbying by EDDC."

"One can only hope that this important contribution does not fall victim to Whitehall spending cuts."

"EDDC's engineers are standing by to initiate the appraisal process to report on the special challenges that Feniton poses, and to gather options so that we can start to design a scheme that will give the village, its residents and its businesses greater protection from flooding in the future."

"This work will be used to build the business case to access the funding provisionally put aside by the Environment Agency."

"We are ready and willing to get the ball rolling before the autumn and we will be holding talks with the Environment Agency as soon as possible to discuss the procedure we must follow to ensure that this vital funding comes to us in the right way and at the right time."

Now, tat's a Guinness World Record?

AN Axminster tattooist is hoping that his 12-hour session — during which 102 people had a tattoo done — will be recognised as an official world record.

Chris Williams of Chis's Tat Shack was in the process of preparing the documentation requested by Guinness World Records when he spoke to Pulman's View on Monday morning.

The record attempt was staged to raise money for victim's of the Haiti earthquake through the relevant charity.

Mr Williams' aim was to tattoo as many people as possible during a 12-hour period and a queue quickly formed when the doors opened at 10am on Saturday, July 3rd.

A total of 102 people turned up to pay £10 to have a tattoo done, one coming from as far away as Hartlepool.

Mr Williams praised everyone who helped make the event such a success and hopes to receive positive news from Guinness World Records at some point during the next three weeks.

Police appeal for home sign

POLICE in Honiton are appealing for information after a large wooden sign was stolen from outside Honiton Manor Nursing Home on Exeter Road.

The theft took place sometime between 10pm on Saturday, June 26th and 8am on Monday, June 29th.

A spokesman for Honiton police said: "The sign is wooden and is white with black writing which says 'Honiton Manor Nursing Home'.

"It is large, about one metre by two and half metres and will be costly to replace.

"It may have been removed as part of an alcohol-related prank over the weekend."

Anyone with information is asked to contact Honiton police on 08452 777 444 quoting crime number KH/10/484. Alternatively contact Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

Warning of hard selling

POLICE are keen to hear from anyone who has encountered hard sell tactics in Uplyme.

An appeal for information was issued after police received a report about a lady who was allegedly put under pressure to buy household items at her door in the Crogg Lane area on Wednesday, June 23rd.

A police spokesman said: "The seller charged highly for these items.

"If you have any information please call straightaway on 08452 777 444 quoting police log 341 23/06/10.

"If in doubt, close the door on these sellers and purchase what you need from a reputable shop."

Student business goes on exhibition in capital

By ANDERS LARSSON
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

A STUDENT-LED college business from Axe Valley Community College in Axminster spent almost a week exhibiting in London.

As previously reported, Axe Valley Bio-Diesel specialises in converting waste vegetable oil into fuel.

Its exploits have been well-documented by local newspapers, regional television and even national television.

A total of 12 students plus staff recently went to the capital to man a stall at The Royal Society Exhibition.

They met with scientists, engineers and members of the public to showcase the business venture and exhibit their environmentally-friendly product.

Only a small number of schools and colleges were offered exhibition space and student Alana Berry said: "We all relished the opportunity, it has taught us a lot in a really practical, hands-on environment."

Science teacher Andrew Colville added: "It is a great opportunity to demonstrate how science can form the backbone of a successful business as well as providing a once-in-a-lifetime experience for staff and students alike."

The business has produced and sold more than 2,300 litres of bio-diesel and all profits will go towards college initiatives or improvements students find worthwhile through the school council.

The students were in London from June 22nd to 27th. They were; Nathan Cox, Charlotte Elliot, Ben Hall, Chloe Sansom, Christina Squire, Charlie Sweetland, Polly Budden, Alana Berry, Peter Jeffery, Alice Forino, Tom Jacobs and George Taylor.

Town centre location for adult facility

A HONITON-BASED facility that helps adults with learning difficulties has had a revamp and has moved into a new premises in the centre of town.

The Newholme facility is operated by Devon County Council (DCC). It has moved from Pine Park Road to Northcote Lane.

It was officially opened by the new county council chairman, Christine Marsh, on Friday, June 25th.

DCC cabinet member for adult and community services, Stuart Baker, said: "The service gives people choice and control over what they want to do during the day, and provides enough support for them to exercise their independence."

Newholme's manager, Steve Robinson, added: "We are in the centre of town, just a moment away from the services that we are helping people to use, right in the heart of the local community.

"From here we're able to help people with their employment, or education, and we're ideally located to assist people to use the local swimming pool and gym for example, the library, and visit any of the many shops and cafes in town."

Paul Diviani, county councillor for Honiton, said: "The building is being put to such good use at the heart of Honiton's leisure and service area and is an asset for the town and its hinterland."

The refurbished premises includes adaptations for both physical and sensory disabilities. It also includes a new Changing Places facility, which is a specially adapted toilet and changing room for people with profound physical and learning disabilities and their carers.

Scout fundraising for Jamboree trip

A NEWLY formed Explorer Scout unit will be representing east Devon at the World Scout Jamboree in Sweden in 2011.

A teenager from Seaton has been selected to attend the function on behalf of the Axe Explorer Scout Unit.

Daniel Knapp, 14, will join 35 other youngsters who will represent Devon at the event which attracts up to 30,000 people from Scout groups across the world.

Fiona Gage, leader of the Axe Explorer Scout Unit, said: "Daniel now has an enormous task for fundraising for the event.

"Each person from the United Kingdom and other developed nations all pay a higher price to attend the jamboree.

"This is because a large portion of their fees goes to ensure fellow scouts from under developed countries in the scouting family, such as the African countries, all get an equal chance to attend this life changing event.

"I hope the local community, and scout troops in the area will help Daniel raise the £2,200 needed for the trip. Anything we raise over this will all go to charity."

Anyone who would like to sponsor Daniel should contact Fiona on 01297 21159.

All ages walk to raise funds for damaged village church

By ANDERS LARSSON
anders@indlenews.co.uk

PEOPLE of all ages, including one five-year-old, took part in a sponsored walk organised by the Otter Vale Team of Churches.

A number of dogs also joined the walk from Ottery St Mary to Feniton on Sunday, June 20th.

The walk took place to raise money for Feniton Church, which was badly damaged in the storm of October 2008.

Team Rector Simon Franklin said prior to the event: "This should be a splendid family day out.

"It's a great way of raising money and awareness for the plight of Feniton Church.

"Closed since the storm in October 2008, the church is undergoing a major restoration project, which has cost more and taken a lot longer than expected.

"The surrounding churches have pulled together to offer Feniton residents services and facilities, but obviously the sooner Feniton church reopens the better for the local community, who value their church so highly."

Sponsorship is being collected and the amount raised will be announced in due course.

Council will ignore votes

HONITON Town Council is likely to proceed with plans for the £1.75million Beehive Community Centre despite a landslide 'no' vote from residents in the town who voted in the recent town poll.

However, the council has said that it is likely to carry out further consultation exercises following the low turnout for the town poll.

Just over 10 per cent of those eligible to vote took part.

Councillors held a private meeting on Monday last and a spokesman for the town council confirmed that it is recommending further consultation.

Speaking to the Pulman's View a spokesman for the town council said: "Following consideration of the town poll, the town council is concerned about the low turnout and will be having discussions with its stakeholders to ascertain how to gain a wider point of view.

"In the meantime, the town council is close to finalising the planning application, which will cost a relatively small amount of money, but will allow further consultation and will enable the town council to move ahead with plans at an appropriate time."

As previously reported in this newspaper, just over 900 people voted in the poll.

The poll took place on Thursday, June 24th, between 4pm and 9pm.

The results showed that 662 people voted against the plans and 257 people voted for them.

Axe Vale Festival awards

Development is inappropriate for semi-rural woodland spot

EDITOR — I need to advise there is a very strong opposition to the proposed Eastfield development in West Hill.

The West Hill Residents' Association's Dan Jelly informed me he had been misquoted in your articles of June 15th and confirmed the residents' association and villagers were, and continue to be, overwhelmingly opposed to this development.

West Hill has already suffered from much garden grabbing in the past few years, with the building of homes totally inappropriate to a semi-rural woodland village.

I am sure many residents were pleased to hear the government's change in direction on this issue, giving greater powers for decision making back to the local councils and villages.

West Hill does not have the infrastructure required for this type or size of development. We already struggle with the volume of traffic through the village and do not even have a safe pathway from its one and only village store.

The development is totally inappropriate in both its location being a greenfield site and its size and must not be allowed to progress.

The village is very worried that agreement to this proposal will also create a significant precedent for other landowners in West Hill, arguing their right to build on further protected sites within the no build village boundaries.

There is currently a petition in progress which I understand is being highly supported by the villagers.

I can understand why the head teacher of the primary school would be in favour of this development, but there is much more at stake than a gift of land and a building, to the majority of villagers in West Hill.

Show better than before

EDITOR — Well done to the committee of Axe Vale Festival, the show was even better than ever.

Axminster and District Support Group of Hospiscare had a stall at the show. We would like to thank Axminster Garden Machinery for sponsoring us, the Bostock family for the loan of their vintage car, blowing up balloons and their donation of the wonderful prize for the competition.

We had 124 balloons in the car and Mrs Parris of Honiton won and her grandson couldn't wait to test drive the tractor.

We also ran a competition to guess the whereabouts in Axminster the photographs were taken. Unfortunately no one could guess all the places.

Thank you for all the support you give to us.

Liz Purvey
Secretary Axminster and District Support Group

How will a new Tesco affect surrounding towns and villages own small businesses?

EDITOR — I share Mr Williams' disquiet about the cosy relationship between East Devon District Council and Tesco (Edition of Tuesday, June 15th), which was one of the reasons (among others) why I resigned from the Seaton Regeneration Board.

I had requested several times that the minutes of these meetings be made public but I was never taken seriously.

My worries were given space in a national newspaper recently and, for that, I have been reported by someone from Seaton to the EDDC Monitoring Officer for "behaviour which brings Seaton Town Council into disrepute".

Quite how it did that I have yet to find out, but no doubt I will be told by EDDC and possibly punished in due course.

Probably this letter will elicit the same reaction.

However, free speech is still, as far as I am aware, free, even in east Devon.

Mr Williams has worries about exactly why we are having a massive Tesco in Seaton which is more suitable for Exmouth or Exeter.

We are both given the reason and excuse that "it stops shopping leaching out of Seaton to other towns and benefits Seaton's high street".

However, if Seaton has this massive Tesco presumably people from other towns will come to Seaton — in their cars — rather than going to shops in Sidmouth, Honiton or Axminster and those towns will then lose trade to the Seaton Tesco, as will our own town shops. Where is the benefit in that?

In the reporter's shoes

Written by reporter
ANDERS LARSSON

'We' are not the World Cup champions

I AM writing this column to seek your forgiveness for doing something horrible a few weeks ago.

I was cleaning my flat on a Sunday afternoon dressed in an England top.

Nothing wrong with that, you may say. After all, homes need a good clean every now and then — and wearing an England top shows that I'm integrating well.

The problem was that I carried out my household chores listening to West German football songs at full blast.

I guess I'll have to blame my dad as he visited West Germany many years ago and bought me a vinyl single recorded by the West Germany squad for the 1974 World Cup.

It was an instant hit with me and was frequently played at parties as I grew older.

The style of music is difficult to describe, but it is very upbeat and can really get you going.

I'd say it's somewhat akin to the excellent Back Home single recorded by the 1970 England squad — sung by young and hopeful men on a mission.

When I left Sweden in 1996, the single was consigned to a removal box which has been stored in various Swedish attics since.

But in 2006 a fellow football anorak visited Germany and found that the West Germans had actually recorded a complete LP in 1974, which had been re-released as a CD to coincide with that year's World Cup.

Needless to say, I ordered a copy pronto and have since played it regularly in my home — windows and doors firmly shut to avoid detection and deportation.

But, after England crashed out to Germany, I have decided to come clean and seek your forgiveness.

If you doubt my loyalty, my neighbours can testify that I went somewhat ballistic during the Germany game when we (yes, I know I'm not supposed to use the 'we' word) were denied the equaliser.

Whilst on the subject of music, I'd like to go on record to say that I'm a great admirer of British music.

What baffles me, though, is that 99 per cent of British people seem to be ashamed of the best tunes ever produced on these shores.

When I first attended music quizzes in this country, I expected us to be celebrating and embracing great UK acts like Mandy Smith, Sam Fox, Rick Astley, East 17, Def Leppard, Bananarama, Kim Wilde, Pet Shop Boys and so on.

How wrong I was. One bloke looked at me as if I had questioned his parentage and said: "We don't listen to music like that."

The problem of different music taste also manifested itself in the workplace.

My then boss had a ghetto blaster in his office and tortured staff by whistling along to Gypsy King CDs.

It was actually the whistling that was the worst bit as it mercilessly pierced your eardrums.

I can only describe the noise as a human vuvuzela and a crime against humanity.

When he went to business meetings and such, DJing duties were passed to the bloke who sat next to him.

This bloke shall remain anonymous as he is a friend whom I rely heavily on when it comes to all things technical like computer and TV installations.

Sadly, his misguided idea of a groovy afternoon was to stick the lord song on repeat.

The lord song, by the way, is My Sweet Lord with George Harrison.

One of my colleagues at the time was a young lad who had just left school, and I made it my mission to try and influence his taste in music.

I did really well and he was happy to play along when we took control of the ghetto blaster.

Our Modus Operandi was to tell the lord song man that somebody was asking for him downstairs.

As he made his way downstairs, my younger colleague and I extracted the lord song CD and replaced it with some solid Euro pop, like Victoria Silvstedt's Hello Hey, for example.

We never won the war though, only a few battles as the lord song man quickly restored order after having berated us for playing such a mean trick on him.

Before letting you go I will revisit the combined issue of football and music.

Why is it that every minor and major football tournament must be concluded with Queen's We Are The Champions?

I fully appreciate that the lyrics are, indeed, appropriate — but the song itself is so slow that the beat per minute reader threatens to flatten straight away.

It's like taking an industrial-strength sleeping pill before going out partying, totally counter-productive.

Why not play The Name of the Game with The Fans or E-Type's Campione (which was such a hit at Euro 2000) instead?

I can't see things changing, though, and fully expect FIFA to play We Are The Champions after the World Cup final on July 11th.

I never thought I'd say it, but I can actually see the deafening vuvuzelas becoming quite useful for a change.

Rant and confession over.

CRASH BOX INVADES POWDERHAM

The 37th Historic Vehicle Gathering at Powderham Castle, organized and presented by The Crash Box & Classic Car Club certainly has something for everyone and is a real Family Fun Day out.

Throughout Saturday & Sunday there will be a full programme of events, displays, demonstrations and a wide range of stands, craft stalls, childrens entertainment as well as varied food outlets and licensed bar with entertainment on the Friday and Saturday evening.

On the Friday evening, preceding the show, many of the exhibits will leave the showground at approximately 7pm and drive to the Den carpark in Teignmouth where they will be on display.

The Historic Vehicle gathering supports many local charities, with a main charity chosen each year, which this year is Dream-away.

The Crash box & Classic Car Club would like to thank all it's sponsors and supporters with special thanks to Bill & Taylor, Optometrists and Lens Practitioners

Attendance for group up

ATTENDANCE was high at May's Seaton Women's Institute meeting to debate the national federation 2010 resolution.

The group urges the government to introduce mandatory country of origin labelling on all meat, poultry and fish products. This would be an advantage over the present voluntary code. Results are to be collated by the national executive for final debate at the annual meeting.

On a lighter note one of the members gave an amusing account of living on three very diverse islands — Malta, Cyprus and Hong Kong. Seaton WI celebrated the 90th anniversary of the Devon Federation with a trip on one of Seaton's trams. The tram carried our new banner and was driven by Mr Neil Rutter a member's husband. Although there wasn't much sunshine the group enjoyed a walk and picnic followed by a cream tea in Colyton.

A quilt talk

AT their June meeting Colyton Women's Institute members listened to a very moving talk given by Yvonne Johnson the east Devon co-ordinator of LINUS a charitable organisation set up in the USA in 1995 to give comforters to life limited children.

The organisation has given over three million quilts worldwide to children who need a hug. All the quilts are made by volunteers.

Appropriately the monthly crafts competition was for a patchwork item and was won by Joan Garner for a beautiful wall hanging.

The floral competition was won by Kath Harris.

Women celebrate 90th anniversary

◆ THE Seaton Group of Women's Institutes held a lunch at Colyford Memorial Hall last Tuesday, to celebrate the 90th anniversary of the Devon Federation of Women's Institutes. Around 100 people attended the lunch, and pictured around the birthday cake are the five local presidents and their special guests from the federation

Audience hopes to adopt the technique

AT Axminster Art Society's June meeting Jake Winkle gave a lecture and demonstration on Skies in Watercolour.

He showed a packed hall of members and visitors his method, beginning the first of three paintings by wetting the paper thoroughly and evenly with diagonal strokes of a hake brush.

The colours he uses for skies are usually cobalt blue, light red and raw sienna, varying the way he mixes them to show different moods.

He brushed the sky area diagonally, leaving varied areas of tone and colour, emphasising that he aims for random, asymmetrical areas avoiding repetition of the same shapes; where a sky comes into contact with land in a picture he uses raw sienna.

After a break for tea Jake produced three different pictures, each with its own atmosphere.

He bucks the trend by painting from dark to light rather than the usual watercolour technique of light to dark, pointing out that it is not a good idea to paint sharp details in the foreground if the focus is to be the less well defined background.

Jake told the audience that his key themes in a painting are shape, colour and tone.

Having had such an instructive demonstration the audience, which had been very attentive throughout, went home hoping they could remember all Jake's clever but simple ideas on how to paint convincing skies.

Member hosts club meeting

THE June meeting of the Inner Wheel Club of Seaton was chaired by president Pat Richards and was held at the home of Cynch McHardy in Lyme Regis.

After the usual monthly business members were thanked for making sandwiches and cakes for the senior citizens' annual tea party at Colyford hall organised by Seaton Rotary Club.

After the monthly meeting the annual meeting took place when all the officers gave their annual reports.

Jane Graves, the overseas organiser, thanked members for the huge assortment of goods including knitting machines, crockery, bedding and clothes which were going to Moldavia.

The annual inter-club meeting held at Colyford was attended by members from clubs throughout Devon and included four members from the East Ham club in London which has been the link club for 48 years.

The speaker was Anne Mossclraft who took members, with slides, on her journey from Land's End to John O'Groats in her 1932 Austin 10 car.

A recent charity tea in Cynch McHardy's beautiful garden raised £173 for Macmillan Cancer Support.

A collection of small coins amounted to £25 for Water Aid. The club officers for the coming year will be; president Pat Richards; vice-president Jacky Sherwood; secretary Joan McDougall; treasurer Sheila Garrod; overseas organiser Jane Graves and club correspondent Liz Lucas.

Magpies swoop on swallow nest

THEY are handsome, intelligent and a damned nuisance. This morning I discovered a swallow's nest scattered on the floor of the tack-room, with a scattering of dark blue feathers beside it.

Only yesterday I had noted a pair of fledgling swallows peering over the edge of the mud nest, almost ready to fly. But these unfortunates had been killed and eaten by magpies which had the temerity to enter the stable at dawn to undertake their fell deed.

I had seen a pair of the pied pirates hopping on the stable roof to be dive-bombed by agitated parent swallows, but there was little I could do. With a public footpath through the field next door, and a constant flow of dog-walkers, a Larsen trap would last five minutes.

Magpies are a menace, and it is a vast pity that Kate Humble in the Springwatch TV programme fails to understand that they need to be severely controlled. Thousands of fledglings are torn from their nests each spring by these persistent predators and it is high time that their numbers were reduced.

I recently bemoaned the apparent lack of swifts, and even house-martins in my area, but am delighted to report seeing several swifts early one morning, and dozens of house-martins. David Walters, in the latest axe estuary bird report, notes that the swift population has, for some inexplicable reason, crashed in recent years, possibly partly due to an increasing lack of nesting sites. However, the RSPB is keen to discover where swifts are still to be seen, and where they are nesting. To this end they are asking anyone who has seen these birds or knows of nesting sites to record them by visiting www.rspb.org.uk/helpswifts.

There is also mention in the newsletter of the Axe Vale Animals and Bird Park which is run by Andrew and Jane Collier. They have assembled a wonderful collection of creatures, including meerkats, wallabies, porcupines and eagle owls, and their park, set just below Axminster, is well worth a visit.

We may have just had a dash of much needed rain, but even so the countryside is tinder dry and during June a number of heath fires in Dorset have occurred at Bourne Bottom, Talbot Heath, Canford Heath and Kinson Commons, all of which have destroyed vegetation and wildlife.

Doubtless the majority of heath fires are caused by accident, often through discarded cigarettes, but in some cases fires are started deliberately. Urban Heath Partnership (UHP) wardens are patrolling the most vulnerable sites, as too are the police and Dorset Fire and Rescue Service. If you see a fire, no matter how small, immediately dial 999 and provide location details. Don't take a chance or ignore it.

We all know that the water-vole population had plummeted, largely due to the invasion of the wretched American mink. Now an experiment on the River Dore in Herefordshire has clearly shown that the trend can be reversed.

Some 600 captive-bred water-voles have been released in the area and, at the same time, there has been a complete elimination of mink. The result is that the voles have thrived and are now well established along the 285km of river.

The mink have been wiped out over a 400 sq km area, through the use of the Game and Wildlife Conservancy Trust's designed mink raft, a highly efficient method of trapping the vicious predators.

However, it is a costly exercise and if the experiment is to be extended to other areas on a large scale, funding is going to be needed. The cost of running mink rafts and traps amounts to £306 a day. Nevertheless, if mink can at last be wiped out and water-voles restored, the overall budget, country wide, will be more than justified. Hopefully, even in these straitened times Government funding will be found, perhaps assisted from the private sector, to help return this harmless native animal to its former status.

Pulman's

the churches

With Nigel Speller

THERE is a reminder this week that preparations for Back to Church Sunday this September are moving ahead.

Last year 100,000 people accepted invitations to church through this initiative, and research shows that between 12 and 15 per cent of these people became regular attendees at their local churches.

Also happening in September is voting by members of Deanery Synods in the election for the new Church of England General Synod.

If few members exercise their votes the common sense of democracy is threatened and it leaves extremists groups to fill the void.

The voting is by the single transferable system which means that every vote counts and if the early choices are knocked out then votes are transferred down the line — so no vote is wasted.

All of this will be explained on the ballot papers. Before this new General Synod meets in the autumn, the present Synod has its final session, at York University, in July.

The agenda for this meeting includes some 17 hours set aside to debate the draft measure for the consecration of women as bishops.

The formal process involves several steps which must be completed and agreed at Synod before the proposals are sent to the 45 dioceses and the armed forces chaplaincies for agreement.

At least half of these bodies must be agreed before the proposals return to the new General Synod in 2010 for final approval, and then on to parliament and the Queen.

So, it seems that the first woman Bishop in the Church of England will not appear until 2014.

The General Synod in July will also be dealing with some other business including changes to the clergy pension scheme, and a draft budget, the establishment of a Faith and Order Commission, and a motion from Coventry Diocesan Synod proposing to give deanery synods incorporated status.

The Sunday evening session, — which conflicts with the World Cup final — comprises annual reports from the two Archbishops — will there be any absentees?

While on dates, this time 2012 is the 350th anniversary of the 1662 book of common prayer.

The charity The Prayer Book Society has launched a campaign urging the Royal Mint and Royal Mail to issue a special coin and stamp to mark the event, and suggestions for a stamp are the Archbishop of Canterbury holding the book of common prayer.

Forthcoming local events include the annual Colyton Church Fete on Saturday, July 10th including games, stalls and teas.

Thursday, July 15th at 7.30pm sees the 28th annual meeting of the Friends of St Andrews Colyton in the church.

Branscombe Church offers a concert in church on Saturday, July 17th at 7.30pm in aid of the new cloakroom facilities.

Then on Wednesday, July 21st Cafe St Michael's meets at Colyford from 10am to 12noon and there will be organ music played by Cornelius.

Looking towards the end of July, Colyton Church is holding a Flower Festival from July 29th to August 1st, which will be open daily with refreshments available.

We end this week with a reflection by Elisabeth Lynn of the recent Axe Vale Festival.

At this Festival, the Axminster Churches Together stand had no hidden agenda — we weren't there to gather new members or sell anything — we were simply there to meet, listen and give.

In spiritual terms we were giving people the opportunity to choose one of God's promises, or to write down an anxiety or fear so that we could pray for them.

On the practical side we gave out information about the Alternative Job Club which offers free local help to those out of work who need assistance in their search for jobs or training.

We met on Monday evening to pray through the prayer request book as promised, and we also shared our impressions of the festival and were very encouraged by the positive responses we had received.

Many thanks to the organisers of this excellent annual event — we are already thinking how we might improve next year.

◆ ON Monday, June 21st members of the Visually Impaired group from Seaton paid a visit to the gardens of Pecorama at Beer. After a conducted tour of the colourful gardens the group enjoyed a cream tea

Wendy honoured by RNLI

THE Royal National Lifeboat Institution officially praised a Beer "family affair" when presenting Wendy Cummins with a Gold Badge.

Wendy is the secretary of the RNLI's Seaton, Beer and District branch, and the badge was given for her long service to the organisation.

Wendy recently travelled to The Barbican Centre in London — accompanied by her daughter Tracey and son Alastair — to collect her award.

She moved to Beer in 1976 and took part in a sponsored walk for the RNLI in May 1977 with her late husband Nigel.

Later that year they were both invited to join the branch committee, quickly involving their children too.

Their daughter Tracey was part of another sponsored walk at the age of three, completing it on a tricycle whilst her then 11-month-old brother Alastair went the distance in a pushchair.

Wendy became assistant branch secretary in 1988 and secretary in 1997. Nigel held the post of vice-chairman from 1992-94 and was then chairman until he died in November 2007.

Wendy described it as "a great surprise" when she opened a letter from RNLI chief executive Paul Bossier, informing her that she was to be awarded a Gold Badge.

Talking about the presentation Wendy said: "As I approached HRH The Duke of Kent, he held out his hand to shake mine then gave me the badge."

"It was truly a proud and emotional moment as I thought of my late husband, who did so much for the RNLI, plus my parents who also were not there to see me receive the award."

Wendy also said a big thank you to Sarah and her team in the fashion department of Fields of Sidmouth plus Penny at the cosmetics desk.

Cyclists kick-off UK tour

By ANDERS LARSSON

anders@indienews.co.uk

SEATON was the scene when a two-month uk-wide cycle race set off last Saturday morning.

The Great Tour was the centrepiece of a weekend-long cycling bonanza in the town, which also included a variety of events as part of Seaton Festival of Cycling.

The Great Tour is a non-competitive Tour of Britain spin off, with start and finish in Seaton.

Over the next two months, it will follow a route around the coastline of England, Scotland and Wales.

Riders are able to join the tour for a stretch of their choice, but there is also a core team of around 20 cyclists tackling the full 6,600 kilometre route.

One of them is Alistair Cope of Seaton-based Axe Valley Pedallers (AVP).

Just minutes before setting off last Saturday, he said: "I'm very excited. It is a great time for Seaton and a massive and epic adventure."

Mr Cope is riding in aid of The Prostate Cancer Charity and was accompanied by fellow AVP riders as far as West Bay on the first leg, which finished in Swanage.

His progress can be checked online at www.qoroz.co.uk/tour/ where progress reports will be posted on a regular basis.

The Great Tour finishes on September 4th, also in Seaton.

◆ SEATON held a Festival of Cycling over the weekend to mark the start of The Great Tour, a 6,600 kilometre charity cycle ride around the coast of Britain. The tour set off from Seaton on Saturday and will finish there on September 4th, the day of Seaton Carnival. Above, the crowd cheer as the riders set off. Top left, the main cyclists line up in front of the tour banner. Far left, Colyton Town Crier, Derek Wenn, leads the cyclists from the town hall to the seafront for the start. Homes & Interiors

Creating a cosy home

Ensure it really is 'home sweet home' by creating comfortable, welcoming rooms for family and friends. Follow top tips from an expert in style. There are some homes which envelop guests in feelings of warmth, like a blanket. And in these uncertain, insecure times, what we all need are re-assuring, unpretentious sanctuaries, according to interiors author, Caroline Clifton-Mogg.

"There's no doubt that the way we want to live now has changed, the idea of gross excess in all its forms is no longer desirable. Quiet enjoyment - based around the home - is seen as admirable," she points out. "I think it's the ideal moment to look more closely at our homes and see how we can make them more comfortable without huge injections of cash, without turning everything upside down or bringing in major changes."

Her new book, aptly named The Comforts of Home, includes an inspiring collection of rejuvenating and transformative tips. Some of the guidance harks back to inexpensive natural remedies, and housekeeping rituals of bygone eras, while other suggestions are ingenious ways to achieve bang-up-to-date styles without breaking the bank.

Caroline, who lives in London but has over the years travelled Europe visiting a myriad homes, says: "The current order of the day is a house that is warm and easy to live in, decorated with individuality and taste, not excess and extravagance."

"There are so many things that one can do to make a place, a room, more comfortable, more pleasant to be in - so many small decorative changes that rely on imagination and style, rather than a deep purse. Creating a comfortable home is actually far more about thought than money."

Follow Caroline's thrifty chic recipe for rooms that you'll never want to leave!

Six easy steps to a cost free makeover

- Copy decorators, who often move their furniture around on a temporary or seasonal basis, or just because they feel like it, says Caroline.

"They like to see how things look in a new light, perhaps moving a sofa or chairs to a different position. They try things out and assess the results with a cool, dispassionate eye. Moving one large piece will alter the way that everything else in the room looks. At the very worst it will show you what you can't do, and at the best it will give the room a whole new effect, as well as a completely different perspective."

- Add new cushions or lampshades, or move existing ones to different rooms to rejuvenate your home.

"This is another decorator's tip," says Caroline. "It's done for the same reason that it's all too easy to get used to seeing things so that they almost become invisible through familiarity. Pile up cushions in one area and then try them out on different seats, in new areas, or consider having lighter cushion covers for summer months to ring the changes."

- Ring the changes in the kitchen. If you normally have only table mats, use tablecloths.

"Tablecloths are comfortable, cosy, and when they dress a table they suggest delicious meals soon to be eaten," says Caroline.

So get out the china kept in cupboards for special occasions, and use it more frequently. Or, if you don't want to risk special pieces getting damaged, put up shelves and display it.

- Bring new life to the bedroom, says Caroline, by bringing out your collection of bedspreads and bed linen and trying different combinations. Discard (or recycle) sets rarely used, and consider taking advantage of sales and investing in a couple of new bed linen sets a year, she says.

Old quilts can be used to make bedroom cushions, window seat cushions or for ottoman and stool tops, as the extra padding adds to the comfort of the seat. You can also try folding old curtains or smaller quilts and using them on the back of sofas or on the end of a bed.

- Create window seats throughout the house.

"These don't merely provide extra seating but are also a lovely spot to sit and gaze out. It's worth taking a close look at windows that are roughly the right height from the floor to see whether one might work. It could be constructed to be as simple as a bench seat, made as a box seat with a hinged top, or even as a cupboard to store toys, clutter or a wine rack."

- Use your eyes and watch how other people do it.

"Nothing sharpens the mind so much as seeing what other people want, and how much they might be prepared to pay for it," says Caroline. "Browse antiques sites on the internet, graze antique price guides, look in shop windows. As the old cliché goes, 'One man's junk is another man's treasure' and I guarantee that the moment you see an old print, chair or vase rather like the one you have at home, the one you actually own will become even lovelier than it already is." You can quickly transform.

NJ Whittaker Ltd

NJ Whittaker Ltd, Chartered Building Company continues to be very busy despite the economic downturn and is receiving a steady stream of enquiries for an interesting variety of projects.

The company is currently working on a range of domestic projects over the local area from Charmouth in the east to Exeter in the West. They are shortly to commence a prestigious new build in West Hill as well as three other projects for clients with whom they have worked for previously which is happening more now N J Whittaker Ltd is a long established company with an excellent reputation.

If you are considering a building project now or in the future they would be delighted to hear from you.

HAVE YOU GOT A BUILDING QUESTION YOU NEED ANSWERED?

Each month on our Homes and Interiors feature we shall have a new helpful section with Nick Whittaker of N.J. Whittaker Ltd. in Honiton who is an experienced and fully qualified builder who will answer your questions. This can be anything from DIY queries, a query about new laws and regulations, to a dispute with a builder you have at the moment. Please either email your questions to kelly@pemedi.co.uk or post them to:

Kelly Baker, Pulman's View From, Tindle House, South Street, Axminster, Devon EX13 5AD

A question will be picked out and answered each month

THIS MONTH'S QUESTION: Question- From Mr Dylan Cross

I am currently considering an extension and alteration project to my property. I am hoping that the project will commence in the autumn and be finished in the spring of next year. From the 4th January 2011 the standard rate of vat will be 20%. Will this mean I will have to pay the new rate of vat on the whole project cost?

ANSWER:

No, you will only pay the new rate of vat on the value of work completed after the 4th January 2011. Bear in mind potential delays due to weather and that some builders close down for two weeks over the Christmas period.

Alexander Paul

Imagine a whole range of bespoke, high quality, hand made furniture, made to your specification and topped off with a magnificent piece of solid, inch thick slate.

Slate top tables allow you this wonderful opportunity; to become a furniture designer and create the table design of your dreams, from as little as £295!

Slate can be either traditional or contemporary as a table surface, it just depends on the design of the table base you design and choose for it.

Slate top tables will allow you to design a magnificent full sized dining table. If a new dining table is not on your shopping list, then maybe a console table, a serving table, a coffee table or a garden table is. You choose if it is to be crafted in new or antique oak; in a painted (colour of your choice) or contemporary "shabby chic" finish: you choose if you want it to have fashionable French style, square tapering legs, or if it bears the more substantial, stopped chamfered legs of a century earlier; You can even choose if it should be commissioned as a circular, square or rectangular table. Drawers, handles and size are all design features for you to design and build in!

Coffee tables start from as little as £295 and have many individual design options to choose from. Garden and patio tables look fantastic with a choice of styles including the stylish "Axminster" with its Arts and crafts inspired X stretcher base, all capped of course with an impressive slab of riven slate and raised on freshly cut, green oak.

Exhibiting at The Devon County Show the response and enthusiasm was unprecedented. The tactile nature of the slate was evident as it drew people to our stand, hands outstretched to touch the cool, calm slate that bears the companies name.

If you want a table; modern, contemporary or traditional then go to our easy to use website www.slatetoptables.com and let us help you to design the table of your dreams!

Slate top tables; as individual as you are!

Alexander Paul Antiques is delighted to be associated with Slate Top Tables. "Many of the design features and styles offered have been drawn directly from and inspired by the beautiful pieces of Antique French country furniture which have passed through our showrooms" advises David Steele, co founder and director of both Slate Top Tables and Alexander Paul Antiques.

We welcome all our readers to come and visit our extensive showrooms at Fenny Bridges near Honiton, to experience for themselves the beauty and serenity of both the largest range of French county dining tables on the internet and the magnificence of the new range of furniture designed by you the customer crowned with slate.

Alexander Paul Antiques also offer a full antique and modern furniture restoration service; we presently have all the medieval pews and later furniture from a local church in our workshops (having now dried out after the floods 18 months ago) rubbing shoulders with a valuable collection of Ercol furniture which is in for complete refinishing.

If you have a piece of furniture which requires restoration you can rely on the professional and highly skilled services of the apprentice served tradesmen at Alexander Paul Antiques. Please visit our full online stock catalogue at www.alexanderpaulantiques.com

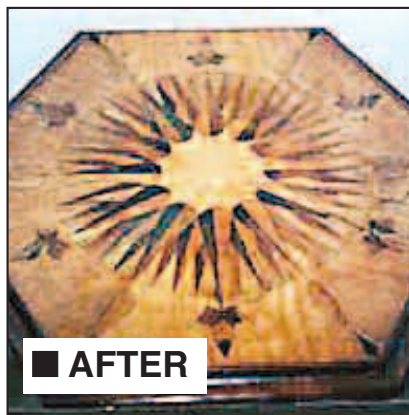

PAINTED MEDIUM SLATE TOP COFFEE TABLE - Hand made from quality yellow pine timber in our own workshops in Devon 1200mm long, 650mm wide 485mm high, can be hand finished in any standard farrow & ball estate eggshell paint colour of your choice.

Edwardian home with landscaped gardens and outstanding views

THIS most attractive and appealing Edwardian four bedroom detached house located in an outstanding position in one of the premier roads in Seaton, benefiting from far reaching Axe Valley and coastal views.

Constructed in 1911 this substantial property has colour washed rendered elevations under a tiled roof and has double glazed windows and gas fired central heating. The property occupies an excellent size plot and the gardens both at the front and rear benefit from outstanding views.

The house has a number of features associated with the period including panel internal latched doors, staircase and the original bell system in the kitchen. The living room, dining room and hallway also retain parquet floors under the carpets.

The accommodation includes four bedrooms, two en suite, balcony to bedroom three and family bathroom on the first floor. The ground floor comprising entrance conservatory, lounge, separate dining room, kitchen with larder, utility area with separate wc.

Outside the beautifully landscaped front garden maximises the view. There is a double garage and a good sized rear garden also has the benefit of Lyme Bay views. The house has been updated in the past but would now benefit from a little further improvement.

The property has an asking price of £495,000. For further information or to arrange a viewing please contact John Wood & Co 01297 20290 or www.johnwood.co.uk

Harris Lets celebrate successful year with new image and new website

AFTER just over a year's successful trading and working within the community Harris Lets have recently rebranded our logo and accompanying signs, along with launching a new, easy to navigate and modern website.

We believe at Harris Lets that updating and revitalising our brand image and business will spark new interest and increase our potential and effectiveness to let out properties, in these difficult financial times.

This website makes it easier for potential tenants to search for that special property and for landlords to display their property with a full description and photos that enables all the qualities of each property to be displayed, increasing its letting potential.

To celebrate our rebranding we are offering special offers to both landlords and tenants during the month of July.

Any fully managed properties taken on during the month of July will be subject to a 50 per cent discount on the monthly commission for the first three months of the tenancy period.

We are also offering a fixed rate on any tenant find during July, this would include advertising, accompanying all viewings and the preparation of all tenancy agreements. We can also offer fixed fees should you just wish to advertise your property with us to take advantage of our newspaper, internet and shop window advertising.

We have also kept the charges to our tenants at an affordable level, as we know how expensive renting can be. We will tell you exactly what the cost to you will be to move to a property and will not surprise you with any hidden administration charges, when the time comes to pay.

Should you wish to discuss these, or any other needs you may have, please contact us on 01297 630933 or email info@harrislets.co.uk, or visit our website at www.harrislets.co.uk and one of our team will be pleased to help.

Fulfords announce new property agreement with Google

◆ Ed Parker, Fulfords Managing Director

LOCAL estate agents Fulfords, part of Countrywide, the UK's largest estate agency and property service group, has become one of the first agents in the country to list its properties on the new Google Maps property search feature.

The new tie-up with Google will extend Fulfords presence online to reach the growing number of buyers, sellers, tenants and landlords who use the internet to make their next move.

The Google Maps property search feature allows home seekers to enter a city or location and see all the available properties in the local area, which can be refined by price, type of property, bedrooms and bathrooms.

Google's latest innovation builds on the phenomenal success of Google Maps, which allows millions of visitors to view satellite images of any given location and search for nearby amenities such as schools, shops, restaurants and local businesses.

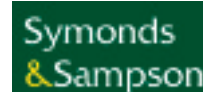

Fulfords online coverage includes some of the biggest property websites and portals, including www.propertywide.co.uk - a new website which became the fourth most visited estate agency website within 6 months of launch.

Ed Parker, Fulfords Managing Director, said; "Our success is dependent on ensuring we market our properties to the widest possible audience and this arrangement with Google is fantastic news for our clients. We always want to ensure we lead the industry and are at the forefront on new online developments."

"Our aim is always to maximise the exposure of the properties we have on offer in order to achieve a quick and satisfactory sale."

"We are delighted to be one of the first estate agents in the UK to feature our properties on Google Maps and our customers will now have an even greater platform to market their homes to the widest online audiences."

Treat yourself with a meal at the lovely Lakeview Manor

NESTLED amid 45 acres of picturesque parkland with 3 fishing lakes that are well stocked with carp, tench, rudd and perch, the charming Lakeview Manor hotel boasts a tranquil and relaxed environment within the natural beauty of Dunkeswell, Devonshire.

The restaurant has recently been refurbished so what better place to go and relax and enjoy an exceptional meal. One thing you can come to expect from Lakeview Manor is fantastic value; their Sunday Carvery is no exception. With one course at £7.95, two courses for £10.95 and three courses for £13.95 you will not be disappointed. The food and service are outstanding. The locally-brewed Otter ales are full of character and flavour.

Lakeview Manor are now offering a menu filled with delicious food to tempt you. Starters such as Wild Pigeon & Pear Salad in a Honey & Mustard Dressing and Wild Boar & Foie Gras Terrine, Tomato Chutney & Melba Toast. On the main courses you will find such delights as Pan-fried Fillets of Sea Bass with Crab, Prawn & Lemon Risotto or Seared Duck Breast served with Roasted Beetroot and Black Cherry Sauce. All main courses are served with New Potatoes, Chips or Dauphinoise Potatoes and Seasonal Vegetables. The Desserts are just as tempting; you could try the Sticky Toffee Pudding with Butterscotch Sauce or Kahlua Tiramisu with Tuille Biscuits. There is plenty on the menu for the little ones too with a great children's menu including Spaghetti Bolognese or 4oz Beef Burger and Chips. Also on the menu, Sandwiches, Grills and Sharing Plates.

Whatever you choose to eat at Lakeview Manor you can be sure of a warm welcome and to be very well looked after.

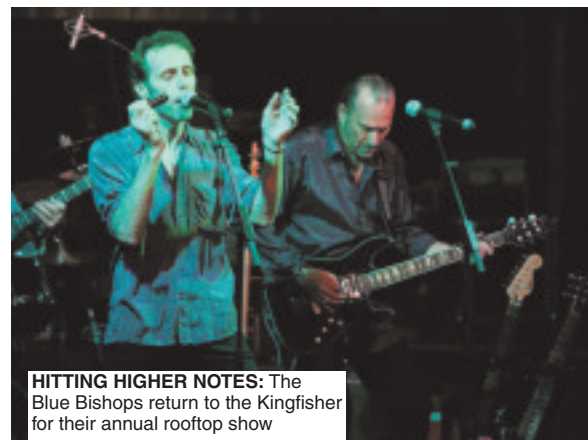

A high spot for the Blue Bishops

THE Blue Bishops will be making their annual appearance on the rooftop of The Kingfisher in Colyton during the afternoon on Sunday the 25th July. This event is becoming a bit of a local tradition. It's certainly a well established annual event, now attracting people from all over the country who make the trip especially for the music, real ales, food and the great surroundings. As usual Nick and Sally at the pub will be providing one of their legendary barbecues to accompany the music, along with waitress service for the fans.

It's been an interesting year for the band. The album, 'In the Red' produced by a historic first time ever teaming up of legendary producer John Leckie of Muse, Radiohead and Stone Roses fame, and Stuart Epps, who is famous for his work with Elton John, Chris Rea and Led Zeppelin. The album was a long time coming, not so much in the recording, but in the process of sorting out distribution, publicity and, of course the gigs needed to get the new songs across to a wider audience. It's now available direct from the band, but also worldwide on i-tunes, Amazon and all the major international download sites.

Critical reaction has been excellent with great reviews and more coverage to come in a forthcoming issue of Classic Rock. The contributions of the legendary Rod Argent and ex-Free John 'Rabbit' Bundrick, currently The Who's keyboard player, add an extra dimension the recorded tracks. But the 'live' performances are what the Blue Bishops are all about and music fans can expect the usual energetic performance, with some new songs to boot. Tickets, at £8 each, go quickly for this event and are available direct from Nick and Sally at the Kingfisher, Dolphin Street Colyton EX24 6NA - 01297 552 476.

HITTING HIGHER NOTES: The Blue Bishops return to the Kingfisher for their annual rooftop show

Funk master Maceo Parker for Phoenix show

LEGEND:

Maceo Parker has been involved in some of the biggest funk and soul records ever made LEGENDARY funk-soul-jazz saxophonist Maceo Parker will be playing at the Exeter Phoenix on Friday, July 9th as part of the Exeter Summer Festival.

Parker was an integral part of not one but two revolutions in black music. In the 60s he was a key member of the JB's and the prominent soloist on many of James Brown's hits. In the 70s he left to join up with George Clinton in Parliament and Funkadelic. In the 90s he was also part of Prince's band but has since built up an enviable reputation for his own solo work. His band now includes other illustrious players with James Brown and Parliament credentials – Rodney Skeet Curtis, Ron Tooley, Bruno Speight, as well as master trombonist Dennis Rollins.

Doors open at 8.30pm, and tickets are £18, available online at www.exeter-phoenix.org.uk or by call the box office on 01392 667080.

New Ford prices to set value benchmark

Ford is reducing the official recommended list prices on all its medium and small cars from August 2. This follows similar action on Ford's large car range in April and means that all Ford's acclaimed passenger cars now offer transparent value for money.

Kevin Quigg, Ford Dealer Council chairman, said: "There was an immediate effect in the showroom as a result of the lower list prices on large cars. Ford dealers are delighted to see the company continuing to lead the market by applying the initiative across the entire Ford car range."

As well as appealing to showroom customers, the lower recommended list prices will also reduce P11D tax liability, increasing the appeal of Ford's small and medium cars to company car drivers.

Seasonal promotions featuring discounts of up to 15 per cent were first introduced across the Ford UK dealer network to maximise trade in the critical March sales month, when customers massed to acquire the latest "10" number plates. Launched in early February and advertised in the media and on the Ford website, these temporary promotions resulted in strong sales.

In April, these promotions effectively became permanent on Ford large cars and now they have been applied across the entire Ford car range, to make the pricing and value of Ford models more transparent to customers.

Nigel Sharp, managing director Ford of Britain, said: "The traditional way that the car industry has operated in the UK – with high recommended list price matched to high discounts – is causing confusion for consumers."

"Together with our dealer partners we are determined to change that formula and make the whole purchase process more transparent and the value of Ford cars more obvious."

At the same time as reducing the recommended list price on its small and medium cars, Ford is reducing dealer discounts. This completes the action started with large cars in April, called "Blue Tag pricing", which Ford said at the time it aimed to extend across its entire car range.

From August 2, the recommended list price of a Ford Ka Studio will be £7,995; the recommended list price for a Ford Fiesta Studio will be £9,995, the recommended list price of a Ford Focus Zetec will be £15,545 while the recommended list price of a Ford Kuga Titanium will be £22,495. This compares with recommended list prices of £9,360, £11,645, £18,345 and £23,795, respectively, for the outgoing models.

Toyota Auris Hybrid is WhatGreenCar car of the year 2010

THE NEW Auris was chosen from a short-list of 10 green car finalists which were test-driven by six of the UK's leading green transport and environmental experts. The judging was completely independent and showcased the most innovative green new cars available to buy in the UK during 2010.

In addition to awarding the Car of the Year title to the new Auris hybrid, the judging panel also 'highly commended' the Seat Leon 1.6 TDI Ecomotive, BMW 320d EfficientDynamics and Citroen DS3 1.6 HDi.

On behalf of the judging panel, Dr Ben Lane, Managing Editor of WhatGreenCar said: "With so many models now in the sub-100g/km category for CO2 emissions, this year's contest was more evenly matched than in 2009. The SEAT Leon excelled in its drive, handling and its excellent value, with one of the lowest WGC ratings in its class. The BMW 320d has dramatically improved on the emissions of its predecessor, without denting BMW's high standards of build and performance. And the new Citroen DS3 is the new low emission head-turner, and will be in high demand from car buyers who are looking for a green car that's 'sexy'."

"The judges, however, were particularly impressed by Toyota's Auris hybrid; the latest in their developing hybrid range and, most significantly, the first hybrid in the 'small family' class. Cheaper and smaller than the Prius, the new Auris will allow significantly more car buyers to join the 'hybrid owners' club. In addition to the car's superior drive and state-of-the-art driver control options, the judges also noted its 'normal' looks, in contrast to the more futuristic Prius; and a sign that hybrid technology is now becoming mainstream."

"One other short-listed car that also caught the judges' attention was the all-electric Mitsubishi iMiEV. With its distinctive looks, silent running, zero-emissions, and total simplicity, several judges thought that this was the 'car to watch', the only reservation being the price. With a list price of over £38,000, the iMiEV remains way out of reach for most car buyers. That said, if Mitsubishi can find a way to lower the price, the iMiEV will sell like hot cakes - with a WGC rating of only 10, we hope they will."

About the Toyota Auris hybrid The Auris' Hybrid Synergy drive is almost identical to that of the successful Prius, and features a 1.8 litre VVT-i petrol engine and two electric motors that work together to deliver power to the wheels in the most efficient way. The result is best-in-class CO2 emissions of just 89 g/km and a combined fuel economy of 74.3 mpg.

As in the Prius, the driver is able to switch between the power options: driving in EV-mode (electric only when batteries have sufficient charge), ECO-mode (the car decides how to use energy sources most efficiently), and POWER-mode (petrol and engine and batteries are used to maximum effect). The model is exempt from paying 'road tax' and the London Congestion Charge. The Auris hybrid is manufactured in the UK, and is available from 1st July.

Prices announced for new Abarth 500c and Abarth Punto Evo LAUNCHED here in July 2008, the award-winning Abarth brand has continued to find new fans in the form of enthusiast drivers wishing to express themselves through their choice of car.

And these two new Abarth retain the previous models' good looks and thrilling styling, while introducing exciting news ideas, power upgrades, and a host of useful equipment – much of it as standard.

In keeping with Abarth's philosophy of 'Making the Ordinary Extraordinary', Abarth has taken a convertible car and made it its own in the shape of the new Abarth 500C while, at first glance, the new Abarth Punto Evo clearly has a more aggressive look with sporting credentials for all to see.

Abarth 500C

Priced at £17,500 OTR, the Abarth 500C represents good value when compared with its main rivals. As well as the Abarth Competizione MTA gearbox with steering wheel paddle shift, and the electric hood with glass rear window and third brake light incorporated into the spoiler, the car receives, as standard, a host of other equipment.

This includes seven airbags, xenon headlights, TTC (torque transfer control), parking sensors, Blue&Me hands-free telecommunication system, leather steering wheel and 16-inch alloy wheels. A full range of options includes automatic climate control, leather sports interior, bi-colour paint, red brake callipers and coloured Abarth side stripes and mirrors.

Proof that the 500C is a true Abarth comes in the form of its 140bhp 1.4 16v Turbo T-Jet 140 engine, which provides the convertible with a top speed of 127mph and a 0-62mph time of 8.1 seconds. But the frugal unit returns 43mpg fuel economy on the combined cycle.

Abarth Punto Evo

The Abarth Punto Evo costs £16,500 OTR and, like the Abarth 500C, features an impressive standard equipment list. This includes six airbags, TTC, Eco Gear Shift Indicator (EGSI), performance sport switch, Start&Stop, 17-inch alloy wheels with 5-claw spokes and Blue&Me.

An 'Interscope' hi-fi system, automatic climate control, rain sensor, and tyre pressure monitoring system (TPMS) are among the long list of options.

The Abarth Punto Evo is powered by Fiat Powertrain Technologies' new 165bhp 1.4 16v MultiAir engine which can accelerate the car from 0-62mph in just 7.9 seconds, and on to a top speed of 132mph, and yet returns more than 47mpg fuel economy on the combined cycle.

"Joining together two winning formulas – the convertible roof of the Fiat 500 and the style and performance of the Abarth 500 – will make the new Abarth 500C an irresistible proposition for many new customers," says Ivan Gibson, head of Abarth in the UK.

"And the new Abarth Punto Evo also takes forward a winning combination of its own – new technology and engineering coupled with great looks and versatility. We are very much looking forward to pre-sending these new cars to customers through our 19-strong UK dealer network."

Both the new Abarth 500C and Abarth Punto Evo make their UK public debuts at this weekend's Goodwood Festival of Speed, before going on sale here from Saturday 17 July.

NEWS FROM THE RUNNING CLUBS

AXE VALLEY RUNNERS with Dave Mutter

FOR his 18th run of the year Harry Moore ran the Feniton Frolic 10K. Even with so little rain the organisers managed to find a muddy bridle path. Harry completed in 95:15, winning the oldest competitor award and many other prizes.

The Charmouth Challenge lived up to its name on a warm pleasant day in Dorset. The 186 Fun Runners set off at 2.30pm and the impressive AVR results were: 7th James Hansford in 19.53, 8th Joe Blackledge in 20.04, 10th and 2nd girl home was Mollie Hansford in 20.09. 18th and 3rd girl was Lydia Clapp in 21.33. 75th was Chantal Blackledge in 28.10.

The main challenge is eight miles of very undulating and punishing hills. The winner was Stuart Leaney in 52.12. Lin Lascelles won the ladies run in 64.59. Although not a current member, Tom Hilder stormed home in 23rd place taking 63.16 followed by Ian Apps, getting back to his old form 49th in 69.10. Eleanor Wood was 53rd in 70.02, winning 1st vet 50, 5th lady overall. Next home was Clare Hansford 147th in 82.32. Jane Calvert, in her 3rd race in 8 days, was 172nd, 87.45.

Sue Willer decided not to watch the football with her husband and thought she would go for a gentle run - little did she know what was about to hit her! She came home with a smile on her face but exhausted in a time of 1.53.05 - she was delighted to get in under two hours. Well done to her and all our runners.

Thanks to Charmouth Primary School for putting on such a good event. The Dorset Fire Brigade were much appreciated for their "cold shower" on such a warm day.

HONITON RUNNING CLUB with Judy Davey

THE Killerton Kanter 10k off road race took place in the National Trust grounds of Killerton House on Saturday on one of the hottest evenings of the year. The race was won by Tiverton Harriers' Kerry Roberts in a great time of exactly 40 minutes. Brian Charters was first in for Honiton in 10th position in 42:46.

Richard Harris was pleased to have got his own back on Fran Bond following her victory over him at the Farway 10k. He finished in 45:09 and 21st place. Next were two Honiton ladies who had considerable success with Fran coming 2nd lady in a time of 46:11 and 26th place overall.

Ceri Oak came 3rd lady and 31st place overall in a time of 47:32. They both won a voucher and a box of organic fruit and veg. Steve Davey was next home in 32nd place in 47:59 with his wife Judy followed a few minutes later in 54th and 51:01. Once again she was followed by John Burgess just 36 seconds later in 58th place and Pippa Westall completed the Honiton line up in 88th place in 57:32. There were 141 runners.

The Beat the Bus run is the brainchild of Bill Valentine of Sidmouth Running Club, thought up to raise money for the charity Living with Cancer. The event was sponsored by Stagecoach South West.

The idea was for runners to set off at 6:37 pm or when the bus left it's stop at Otterton last Wednesday. The bus then travelled to Sidmouth on its usual route whilst runners ran cross country to the same point. Bus and runners would both return with runners trying to beat it back to Otterton. All went well with the runners for the first mile even though it was uphill. At that point, and it could only happen in East Devon, runners were literally stopped in their tracks by two rather large farm vehicles in the form of a hay baler and turner blocking the narrow path.

Runners had no choice but to regroup and wait for the vehicles to be moved before setting off again, many thinking that there was no chance of beating the bus then. Just how much did Stagecoach pay that farmer? The route then took runners along dusty paths, fields and wooded areas to the notorious Peak Hill at Sidmouth. It's hard enough going down it but just to get to the bottom and be turned round to run up the road and up the steps is even worse.

Runners were rewarded once the summit was reached as the return journey from this point is mainly down hill. Jill Harrison had a great run and was first home for Honiton in a time of 43:44, 14th overall and achieving 1st lady. Steve Davey was next in 25th place in 46:53 with Judy Davey being the only other Honiton runner finishing 34th in 49:53. There were 95 runners and the bus! Everyone was a little confused then about whether they had actually beaten the bus or not.

A bus duly arrived at Otterton to cheering runners but then it turned out that the race was started with the departure of the wrong bus! Just how many buses stop at Otterton? Eventually, the official time for the correct bus was given as 57:06 meaning all Honiton runners did in fact Beat the Bus. A great run in beautiful countryside - thanks to all the organisers, marshals and Stagecoach but especially Bill Valentine - hopefully it will become an annual event.

Golf round-up

AXE CLIFF with Janet Dack Seniors Section

ON Friday, June 25th players over 65 years of age competed for the June Stableford which also incorporated the Charity Bowl.

Thirty three players took part and there were two outstanding scores with David Field (22) the winner of both events with 42 points. A shot behind with 41 points was John Mant (20) who had to settle for second place and John W. White came third with 36 points. Two days earlier the Seniors travelled to Minehead and on a parched course and lost narrowly by three and a half to two and a half. The two winning pairings for Axe Cliff were Gerry Turner & Rob Grove and Norman Bowles & Phil Christmas. The half point was won by Chris Walker & Peter Knighting.

Over the past two Sundays the main club competed for the Club Championship. Winner of the Scratch competition was Paul Coward (5) with a combined score of 152. Second was Stuart Orren (10) with 158 and third was Nigel Pritchard (12) also with 158 but losing out on the back nine ruling.

Winner of the Handicap competitions was Nigel Pritchard with a nett 134, second was Stuart Orren with a nett 138 and third Andy Trivett with a nett 140.

On Wednesday, June 30th the Ladies played in the annual competition between the Captain and the Secretary. The result was a half after a very determined effort on each side.

HONITON with Andy Wagner Club Championship Weekend

WHAT a thrilling weekend it turned out to be for the club. A whole weekend given over to the Club Championship augmented by the Ladies Bowerman cup, The Seniors Ron Blatchford Cup and the handicap McClydemont Cup.

But the centre piece of the two days was The John Adams Scratch Trophy played over 36 holes.

The weather was perfection which matched the quality of the course. Last years winner Mark Gillard was out to defend his title from all comers but a field of quality players were out to thwart him.

The first days play had Mark shoot a one over par 70. Magnificent golf and there was no reason he couldn't do it again the next day. His second days play was equally low, that was until the very last hole where, out of the blue he put a shot into the caravan park.

He regrouped enough to card a 7 on the last for a 79 but would it still be enough for the championship. It was tight. So tight that first and second carded the same score but Mark's 7 was also his undoing. He lost the trophy on his second days score, count back if you will.

So this years Champion with a magnificent 75 + 74 for 149 was James Drew. Second was Mark Gillard, 70 + 79 for 149 with Jeff Piece 74 and 77 for 151 in third. The Ladies Bowerman Cup played as a Stableford over the two days was won by Sarah Loader with 31pts + 36pts for 67pts tightly followed by Joan Smith's 30pts + 33pts for 63pts. At the same time the Seniors Harold Cook 35pts + 39pts for 74pts took the Ron Blatchford Cup ahead of Paul Richie 37pts and 37pts for 74pts and Ben Laite 39pts and 33pts for 72pts. Which brings us lastly to the Handicap McClydemont Cup. This years winner was 13 year old Jake Phillips who shot a nett 63 + 61 for 124 ahead of long past 13 year old Max Pipe 65 + 69 and Robin Smith 70 + 76. This is a fantastic achievement from one so young and bodes well for the future of the club.

Not surprisingly his handicap has tumbled from 24.5 to 20.1. Next year the scratch cup then Jake?

Mixed Invitation

THIS week the members of Honiton Golf Club played their Mixed Invitation. 36 members invited friends to partner them in a Greensome Stableford.

Organisers Geoff & Shelia Banks arranged a lovely variety of prizes for the table. These were then presented by Club Captain John Stabb and Lady Captain Elizabeth Ward.

The winners with 46 pts. also winning the Salver were Past Captain Terry Dimond playing with Lady Captain of Sidmouth Golf Club Ann Willoughby. 2nd with 45 pts - Bill Eaton and Dianne Parson. 3rd with 44 pts on c/b - John Northover and Monica Frost. 4th on c/b Stan Squire and Eileen Roper. 5th on c/b Phil Wall and Alison McGowan.

Nearest the pin prize on 12th hole - Men - Alan Jackson. Lady - Lucille New. Prizes were also presented for hidden holes and four pairs received 15 balls each for 2-s.

Ladies Section

IF you went down to the woods at Honiton Golf Club on Wednesday you had a big surprise!! It was Elizabeth Ward's Lady Captains Day and the theme was "The Teddy Bears Picnic". Teddy Bears of all shapes and sizes were hidden around the course and the music greeted the Ladies on the 1st Tee.

The Prize Table was Crown

Derby Teddies and Picnic Baskets filled with goodies. Elizabeth thanked the Ladies for their support. The prize giving then took place with Club Captain John Stabb in attendance.

The winner of the Lady Captains Prize with 42pts was Louise Mayor. Other prizes were Silver Division - Winner with 41pts - Lady Vice-Captain Sue Ritchie. 2nd - 39pts - Henrietta Bradshaw. 3rd - 37pts on c/b June Hodge. 4th losing out on c/b - Chris Pearce. Bronze 1 - Winner - 39pts on c/b Linda Northover. 2nd losing out on c/b was Jenny Raison. 3rd - 38 pts on c/b - Joan Smith. 4th losing out on c/b Linda Blundell. Bronze 2 - Winner - 39pts - Betty Weedon. 2nd - 38pts on c/b Sharon Dacre. 3rd losing out on c/b Julie Eyles. 4th - 37pts - Jennifer Pyle. With such good scores Rosemary Greenhorn the Handicap Secretary was kept very busy issuing new handicap certificates.

The Lady Vice Captain thanked Elizabeth for a wonderful day and presented her with a hanging basket from her Committee.

Seniors Section

IT was the "Captains Prize" competition this week where entry is free and Captain Ben Laite generously provided the prizes.

A straight forward Stableford competition but with the added bonus of prizes for "mystery holes", "nearest the pin", longest drive and consolation prizes.

Seventy five players took part but the outstanding performance came from Division One player Ted Chandler with a score of 44 points, Five points clear of any other player.

To add to his joy he also walked away with prizes for the best mystery six holes and nine holes. Other prize winners in Division One were Mike Stroud 39, Harold Cook 39, Mike Kent 38 and Stan Squire with 36 points.

Division Two was much more closely contested with all five prize winners on 39 points and positions decided on countback. Leading the pack was Ian Hamilton, followed by Peter Joy, Bill Nicholls, John Weedon and Chris Chalker.

A prodigious drive on the 18th by Mike Kent took the prize for longest drive whilst Mike Stroud was nearest the pin on the 12th, by one inch according to next nearest John Discombe.

A very good days golf again played in perfect conditions.

Cricket round-up

Strawbridge cracks 207 in Honiton's 376 for 2

AXMINSTER CRICKET CLUB

with Phil Speng

1st XI

AXMINSTER took the long trip to North Devon on Saturday looking to repeat their early season victory over Barnstaple and returned with mission accomplished.

Paul Miller won the toss and asked the home side to bat. Once the opening partnership between Paine (31) and McEndoo (11) had been broken wickets fell at regular intervals although the last pair added 45 valuable runs.

Nick Taylor, with 5-46 produced his best figures of the season thus far and Roaul East (3-43) was again amongst the wickets.

Axminster were left with some 60 overs to chase down the Barnstaple total of 168. It was East (34) who then set up the challenge with Tristan Wakeley (24) in an opening stand of 55 and although Axminster lost a couple of wickets a partnership for the fifth wicket of 70 between Robbie Prior (37) and Danny Larcombe (44 not out) was enough to seal the victory.

2nd XI

SKIPPER Daniel Murnane won the toss for Axminster and having asked Braunton to bat must have been reasonably pleased with having the visitors at 37-2.

However, a stand of 70 between Saunders (42) and Cresswell (41) and then one shared by Parker (62) and Spicer (35) pushed the score beyond 200.

The visitors were eventually bowled out for 250 with Matt Rockett returning the best figures of 4-64 in 11 overs supported by Tom Maxwell (3-43) and Dan Fuzzard (2-51).

The Axminster reply never got off the ground with the loss of three wickets before the scoreboard reached double figures making the task of passing the total somewhat difficult.

Max Felgate (19) and Bradley Cross (29) stemmed the tide and a flourish from Neil Jones (17) saw the home side pass the hundred mark.

The team contained six youngsters under 16 and all equipped themselves well but the need for more experienced players in the side is evident.

3rd XI

AXMINSTER 3rd XI, even with several experienced players, are now struggling at the bottom end of the league, as after having decided to bat first at Clyst Hydon found themselves in deep trouble. Ex-county player John Rhodes and newcomer Oberholster had five wickets apiece as the Axminster side were bundled out for 49 – and 20 of those were extras!

Talented Josh Singleton (14) was the only batsman to reach double figures. The Clyst Hydon openers made short work of the total taking only six overs to chase down the 50 needed with Alan Bagges on 34 not out.

4th XI

AT Cloakham the 4th team found themselves spending a long afternoon in the field although visitors Exeter Civil Service did have some pity and declared after 43 overs with their score at 242-9.

Richard Parkes returned excellent figures of 3-20 while Emily Broad also impressed in spell of 13 overs taking 4-61.

An attacking innings from James Rockett (39) demonstrated the talent amongst the younger members of the club but with no one else was able to take on the opposition and the side crumbled to 71 all out.

◆ Club News: Axminster already play host to many Devon County Youth games but this Sunday (July 11th) sees a first as Cloakham Lavins stages the first of two county matches for disabled cricketers. The Devon team, which formed last season, take on a team from Essex. start time is 12.30pm.

Honiton 1st XI

HONITON won the toss and elected to bat on what looked and to be a good batting track at Exeter Civil Service.

The Visitors lost wickets at regular intervals but maintained a healthy run rate and finished with a healthy 241 all.

Star bat of the day was Brad Groves scoring another well crafted 57 and with Ollie Cave 38, Pete Matravers and Tim Hemery both scoring 23.

Honiton opened with their usual pairing of Adam Holmes and Phil Tansley. Holmes was in destructive form and he quickly got amongst the Civil batsman bagging five wickets in a superb display of fast and hostile bowling.

Kev Kelly then replaced Holmes and took a wicket in his first over. At 37 for 7 Civil were in deep trouble and an early finish looked likely. However Civil then had a Geoff Boycott like batsman at both ends and dug in. Holmes came back into the attack and did remove one more batsman with 12 overs left but Civil finished on 126 for 8 falling well short of the two thirds total they required to gain any extra points for the losing draw but did deny the leaders five points which will please second place Kenn.

Holmes finished with 6 for 30 from his 13 overs in another excellent display.

Honiton 2nd XI

HONITON'S encounter with Exeter III at Ottery Moor saw welcome returns for Tom Strawbridge and Martyn Schmidt.

Honiton opted to bat first, with Pete Beighton playing watchfully against the probing pace of Varghese, while Strawbridge raced to 50 in double quick time with a plethora of classy drives and square cuts. The pair took the score to 90 before Beighton prodded a full toss to short extra cover for 20.

Strawbridge hurtled to a commanding and chanceless hundred as the Exeter bowlers began to flag. Canniford then opened his shoulders rushing from 46 to 66 in four deliveries with a scoring sequence of 4-4-6-6.

Strawbridge reaching his 150 in the 35th over. Choudhary pulled off a series of fine diving saves on the deep extra cover boundary, but at 262-1, Honiton were in total command.

Canniford, within sight of 100 chopped on to his leg stump for a meritorious 92 (four sixes, eight fours), having assisted the starring Strawbridge in putting on 198 for the second wicket. This brought Joe Dixon to the crease and he soon tucked in as Strawbridge careered past 200. The pair added 101 in the last nine overs.

Dixon finished unbeaten on an effortless 48. Strawbridge's behemoth 207 (three sixes, 28 fours) not out exceeded his own personal best by the small matter of 80 runs and allowed Honiton to close on a mammoth 376-2.

Exeter's task looked daunting, but with the pitch playing well there still appeared plenty of runs to be had. That is until Canniford got one to lift and take the shoulder of the bat to gully where Schmidt held a simple catch. Craig Lapping bowled an excellent line, swinging the ball away from the right handers before producing an in-swinging to have Rizvi gloving behind for three.

Lapping produced an in-swinging yorker to see off Coudhary and Dixon got one through Islam's defences to hit the top of off stump.

Meanwhile, P. Kelly was busily helping himself to a half century and with Easterbrook the pair took the total to 140-4.

At this point, Easterbrook connected with a big hit to square leg where Dixon dived at full stretch in an attempt to take the catch, only to land with a sickening crack. A delay ensued as paramedics attended to administer pain relief for what transpired to be a broken collar bone.

A bizarre period of play then brought three run outs before Dickinson was bowled by Hill to make it 197-9 then Ian Kelly came on to claim the final wicket to polish off Exeter for exactly 200. Both teams wish Joe Dixon well for a speedy recovery.

◆ Club News: Axminster already play host to many Devon County Youth games but this Sunday (July 11th) sees a first as Cloakham Lavins stages the first of two county matches for disabled cricketers. The Devon team, which formed last season, take on a team from Essex. start time is 12.30pm.

Bradinch 101s v Ottery B U10s
THEY say that catches win matches and this was certainly the case on a windy day at Bradinch. Ottery lost the toss and were put into bat and managed to score plenty of runs with debutant Mark Redish in particularly fine form contributing 19.

However some excellent catching by the Bradinch fielders meant that Ottery lost 11 wickets, which restricted their score to 247. Bradinch's reply started slowly thanks to some excellent bowling from Ottery's opening bowlers Tom Peters and Tom Simmonds, but Bradinch's middle order piled on the runs and they ran out winners scoring 270.

RESULTS: B DIVISION

Cockington 172 (C Wotton 79, J Howrhiane 22; D Orchard 4-60, S Jordan 2-33, G Barnicott 2-45), Plymstock 173-1 (D Wood 76no, N James 67no), Plymstock (20pts) bt Cockington (4) by 9 wks.

Bowls round-up

HONITON LADIES ARE COUNTY RUNNERS-UP

SEATON with Edward Harden ON 28th June we beat Tiverton West End in a six rink match by 99 shots to 77. Top rink was Maria Johnson, Frank Brown, Marian Vessey and Ted Talbot.

On 29th June our three rink ladies were trounced by Honiton ladies by 40 shots to 73. Top Seaton rink was Sheila Pike, Marian Vessey, Shirley Fewtrell and Joan Miles. In a three ladies triple against Lyme ladies we won by 50 shots to 36. Top triple was Linda Stone, Jill Richards and Angie Mayhew. In a five triples match against Budleigh Salterton on 2nd July Seaton men lost by 78-90. Top triple was Mike Follenfant, David Yardley, Ted Talbot.

In a County Trophy game against Honiton on 29 June Seaton won two rinks, Honiton won one and one was drawn. The shot difference in Seaton's favour was 88 to 73.

In the over 60s triples league against Tiverton B we won by 46 shots to 30. Top triple was David Ford, Keith Miles and Roger Wooland.

HONITON with Tony Broughton ON Tuesday we took on Seaton twice, in the afternoon three rinks of ladies played at home and won all three winning the match by 33 shots.

In the evening the men played Seaton in the County Trophy. Trevor Pipe's rink of John Bryan, Wally Heard and Paul Crockett won, Ken Large with Tony Tooley, Keith Parsons and Mike Sellick drew and the other two rinks lost. This places Seaton second in the League with Madeira top whom are now unassailable.

Wednesday the Over 60s A were home to St Thomas 'A' and lost both rinks. The C side were home to Exeter (Isca) 'A' and had a very convincing 46-17 win, gaining another 8 points.

Friday we sent a side of four mixed rinks to Madeira and came away with a win of 80-66. We had three winning rinks, two with the same 22-15 score and the other lost.

Saturday was a busy day. In the morning the Ladies faced Madeira in the County Final of the National Top Club competition. Madeira's Jan Roberts got them off to a good start by beating Carole Binmore 21-12 in the Singles. The Triples, Rita Barwick, Ann Hillyear and Brenda Harris, could not repeat their Kings victory form and were overwhelmed by Liz Smerdon's rink at 11-26.

Rosemary Hiron, Hannah Morfe, Dulcie Broughton and Sue Evans played well in the Fours to win 19-10. The Pairs was a very tight match, Yvonne Rayner and Shirley Hiscocks did well to fight back and go into the last end one shot up but dropped a two to lose 15-16.

Another brilliant effort by the Honiton girls to finish County Runners Up. Madeira will now play outside the county and we wish them well.

Saturday afternoon was our traditional Fun Day with around thirty turning up in fancy dress. This year's £135 was raised for the Breast Cancer Fund, and the winner of the Fancy Dress was Gerry Dommett as Alice Cooper.

Ann and Dennis Hillyear with Fred Cowey played Carrie Hadfield, Colin Healy and Craig Ralph in the semi-final of the County Mixed Pairs this Sunday. For some time they looked to be on top but Craig finally pulled the game around to win. It is now an all Madeira Final, told you they were hard to beat.

Congratulations to Hannah Morfe for being selected to play for Devon in the Amy Rose 2010 squad. She will play in a practice match against a Johns Trophy squad at Topsham on 19th July. The two fours will then play against Suffolk in a preliminary match at Leamington in August, well done Hannah.

Meanwhile Sue Evans, our Ladies Champion heads off to the National Champion of Champions regional finals at Topsham on Sunday.

FENITON with Roger Smith

The highlight of the week was the success of the Ladies team in the Inter Club Competition. They defeated Kingsbridge at Newton Abbott by 47-32, well done! The winning rink was Glynda Blackmore, Ruth Clarke, Lyn Eveleigh and Ruby Veitch 31-9.

The other rink of Judy Smith, Gill Smith, Avril Coyne and Christine Granger lost by 16-23. The next match, will be against Honiton in the quarter finals of the cross county competition.

The final match in the Men's County Trophy competition resulted in a much needed win against Sidmouth by 85 -75. The result meant that Feniton avoided finishing bottom of the league.

The winning rinks were Robin Cooke, Phil Spreadbury, Ian Veitch and Kevin Lovering 32-13 and Andrew Evans, Eddie Cox, Martyn Eveleigh and Tony Kury 22-17.

The only match in the over 60s league saw the A team lose at Dunkseswell by 28-58.

The mixed team continued with their good run with more success. A good win was achieved away at Chudleigh by 107-83.

The winning rinks were Ruth Clarke, Graham Phillips, Eileen Tuck and Don Conbeer 29-5, Frank Jones, Norma Cox, Martyn

Eveleigh and Richard North 23-18 and Glynda Blackmore, Bob Crowe-Swords, John Livings and Tony Kury 25-18. Then they defeated Heavitree by 110-83. The winning rinks were Ted Pyle, Eddie Cox, Gill Smith and Lyn Eveleigh 18-15, Norma Cox, Ted Goodenough, Graham Phillips and Kevin Lovering 31-14, Frank Jones, Dot Chipperfield, Alan Smith and Mike Chipperfield 20-18 and Colin Cheesley, Don Conbeer, Glynda Blackmore and Martyn Eveleigh 24-17.

The only blot on their copybook was a defeat away at Axminster by 72-79. The only winning rink was Frank Jones, Allan Godfrey, Ruby Veitch and Tony Kury 22-19.

Youth cricket in good shape at Axminster CC

OVER the past three Monday afternoon's Axminster, All Saints, Kilminster and Stockland Primary schools have been taking part in the first Chance to Shine eight-a-side Kwik Cricket League, held at Cloakham Lawns Sports Centre, home of Axminster Town C.C.

The Kwik Cricket League wouldn't have been able to run without the help of Axminster Town C.C. ladies captain Emily Broad and trainee teacher Dan Beer, who umpired every game. Around 40 boys and girls took part with the support of teachers and parents alike.

After 12 games All Saints Primary were crowned the league winners with only one defeat in six games. Hopefully next year we will have more primary schools who are interested in taking part.

The ECB's Chance to Shine scheme has been running in the Axminster area for almost two years and is hopefully going to leave a legacy of kids enjoying cricket in schools and in local clubs.

The scheme has been run by Axminster Town C.C. 2nd XI captain and head coach Dan Murnane, with the help of fellow club coaches Ryan Walker, Neil Jones and Dave Murnane. Through the Chance to Shine scheme Axminster Town Cricket Club Colts section continues to flourish with over 130 under 16s being members of the club and 14 qualified coaches at the club.

If you want to find out what Axminster Cricket Club has to offer feel free to ring Phil Spong on 01297 33621.

Players old and new are welcome to training at Washbrook Meadows on Thursday evenings.

The team have five pre-season friendlies already lined-up; 31st July (H) v Foxhole Stars, 3rd August (A) v Launceston, 7th August (H) v Edgecumbe, 14th August (H) v Millbrook, 18th August (H) v Tiverton Town.

CRICKET EXTRAS

Seaton Copp 20pts as Ben bags four

SEATON travelled to struggling Bridgestow missing three regulars but needing a victory to keep in touch at the top of C Division.

Seaton won the toss and put Bridgestow into bat and Ben Copp had the home club in immediate trouble with some accurate seam bowling, taking the first four wickets to fall and reducing the hosts to 53 for 4 in the 15th over.

Copp's figures were helped by the fact that Seaton were holding their catches. Ben Morgan and Joust Kroesen then came on to clear up the middle order but met some stubborn resistance from D.Binns (32) and C.Lavis (26no) which eventually allowed Bridgestow up to the unlikely score of 172 all out, with the impressive bowling figures reading; Copp (13-4-38-4), Morgan (10-1-40-3) and Kroesen (10-1-25-3).

Seaton managed to knock off the required score with eight overs to spare with openers C.Clode (52) and J.Waterhouse (49) providing the bulk of the runs and M.Bray, D.Cottam and M.Wheeler making up the Balance.

Seaton (20pts) beat Bridgestow (5pts) by 5 wickets to leap-frog over Clist Haydon and Stoke Gabriel up into fourth position.

Honiton Summer Hockey

HORNETS DO BATTLE FOR THIRD PLACE

AS the second year of Honiton's seven-a-side Summer League draws towards it's conclusion, Tuesday evening saw the semi-finals being played; and an exciting evening of hockey was enjoyed by everyone – players and spectators alike.

First on the pitch for 35 minutes of intensive play were Honiton (runners-up in group 2) and Okehampton (winners of Group 1). At the final whistle the scoreline was Okehampton 3 Honiton 1.

For the hosts Becky Bond scored off a cross from the right by Dawn Mayo, but Honiton could not hold off the determined play from the visitors. However, the East Devon side all performed well.

In the second game of the night the winners of Group 2: Exeter Culm Vale Hornets drew 3-3 with Newton Abbott, runners-up of group 1. But in the penalty shoot out which followed – the best of five penalties Newton Abbot won 2-0.

Next week it's Chard v Ottery to decide the 5th and 6th placings – the Wooden Spoon final. Then its Honiton Hornets v Exeter Culm Vale to decide the 3rd and 4th positions; with Okehampton v Newton Abbot in the final.

The evening will be rounded off with a cup presentation to the winners.

Hannay off to Jersey

FORMER Honiton RFC star Nathan Hannay has signed for National Division Two South outfit Jersey. The lock forward had previously also turned out for Sidmouth and Cornish side Launceston.

AXE VALLEY BOULES Double Delight for Axmouth FC

IT was success all-round for Axmouth FC at the Singles and Pairs Finals night, held at The Harbour, as their players walked away with both titles writes Gerard Wood.

In the Singles Plate, the final was contested by Merv Joslin of Axmouth FC and Mark Edworthy of Beer Club, the latter of whom had just come through a tightly-fought semi-final of high quality. Mark carried this form into the final as he moved into a 4-0 lead after two ends, only to be pegged back.

Merv moved into an 8-7 lead, and after placing his first boule on top of the jack, victory seemed inevitable. However, with some outstanding shooting, Mark first dug out the jack, and then removed Merv's boule to hold one shot.

Not to be outdone, Merv landed his final boule on top of the jack again, and victory was ensured.

Results: Quarter-Finals: Les Marshall (Kingfisher A) 9 Bob Berry (Eyre Court) 8; Merv Joslin (Axmouth FC) 9 Tone Whitehurst (Kings Jesters) 6; Tim Allsopp (Golden Hind B) 9 Brian Moore (Seaton Town FC B) 8; Mark Edworthy (Beer Club) 9 Ian Holt (Royal Clarence B) 8.

Semi-Finals: Merv Joslin 9 Les Marshall 6; Mark Edworthy 9 Tim Allsopp 8. Final: Merv Joslin 9 Mark Edworthy 7.

The Pairs Cup was a more sedate affair, with the trophy being contested between Rodney and Steve of Axmouth FC and Dennis and Stan of Kings Arms A, who had both had comfortable passage to the final. Rodney and Steve opened up a 4-0 lead, before Dennis and Stan responded to close to 4-3.

There then followed a series of dead ends as the jack was fired from the piste, before a nightmare final end for the Kings Arms A pair.

After setting a short jack, a series of boules either shot past or landed short, leaving Axmouth plenty of room to drop in the five shots they required for the title to win 9-3.

Results: Semi-Finals: Kings Arms A 9 Kingfisher A 2; Axmouth FC 9 New Inn Flyers 3. Final: Axmouth FC 9 Kings Arms A 3.

Morgan lifts Williams Bowl

with Steve Percival

Club Championships

SUNDAY proved to be one of the hottest days of the summer so far and, with only a slight breeze blowing, fairways were extremely dry and hard with a resulting long run on the ball with greens fast and true.

However, to counter the assistance given by these conditions, Head greenkeeper David Everett and his staff had devised some challenging pin positions which necessitated careful consideration of line of approach to the green on many of the holes.

Played as a 36 hole event, the field, which comprised mainly the lower handicap players in the club, was well supported with a field of 49 players taking part.

As the temperature rose rapidly in the afternoon, some of the competitors found the going a little too challenging and a significant reversal of fortunes took place. However, some, particularly John Yorke and Adrian Morgan, performed consistently well to record excellent scores.

Whilst Terry Peadon (15) achieved the best net score in the afternoon with a 65 he failed to feature in the prize winners.

The eventual winner of the gross (Williams bowl) competition was Adrian Morgan (5) with a second round score of 76 which, combined with his first round gross of 71, gave him a total of 147. However, victory was only achieved over second placed Scott Love (1) through an excellent birdie on the final 18th hole.

Scott, still only a junior player, was one shot behind with a gross of 148 achieved through a 76 in the morning and a one over par 72 in the afternoon. Also with a total of 148 was Jolyon Bugg whose gross of 78 in the afternoon put him in third place.

In the net competition the result was a little more conclusive with John Yorke (6) scoring net rounds of 70 and 65 to run out the winner by three shots over Greg Matthews (5) with a total of 138. In third place with 139 was Junior player Johnny Ebdon (8).

Cribbage Knockout Competition in Aid of Devon Air Ambulance

A SMALL but enthusiastic group of players gathered at the Eyre Court Hotel in Seaton on the 28th June for the Devon Air Ambulance Crib Competition which had been organised as part of the Seton Festival of Cycling.

The first round saw pre-match favourites Paul Vere and Ray Wills knocked out leaving the competition wide open.

The next round was very close with Bob Berry beating Dave Purrington 2-1 and Pat Berry beating Karen Lynch 2-0.

This gave us a husband wife final of Pat and Bob Berry.. Pat quickly disposed of Bob 2-0 to claim the final and the prize of two bottles of wine.

The competition was organised by Ray Wills.
